Sitting only a minute's drive from the Township of Kinglake and only 1 hr 2 m from Melbourne, there's no better position to be in. All within walking distance you will find all essentials such as a supermarket, bank, pharmacy, post office service station, library, medical centre, Bollygum Park, the Kinglake Pub and a few other wonderful places to eat. Nearby you have access to cascading waterfalls, bike, walking or riding trails, scenic outlooks and more.

With only a select number of residential properties left in the district, large building blocks are becoming harder to come by, especially those that are able to be built on. Don't miss out! Call us today to book your inspection.
