

LEASED

35 Smith Street, Healesville

Welcome to your new home

Acacia House has been a B&B in the past and has had a fine reputation of being practical, welcoming and homely. Behind the picket fence you will find well-presented and cared for brick veneer house with 3 bedrooms – all with BIR's, a bathroom with a bath, a separate lounge area, a sitting room with a wood heater, covered verandahs front and rear plus a carport. All this is set in a lovely garden on a fully fenced allotment. Along with the wood heater there is also natural gas ducted heating plus a reverse cycle split system providing all year-round ambience.

Conveniently located so that you can walk into town or access some of the local attractions such as distilleries, cafes and wine bars that Healesville is becoming so well known for. Within a short drive the schools, childcare and lots of amenities are easily reached.

Not often does a property like this come onto the rental market so be quick or you will miss this opportunity to secure it.
