Renovated spaces include new kitchen and bathrooms with stone benchtops and LED lighting, as well as all-electric appliances. There is also a walk-in pantry to the kitchen and reverse cycle air conditioning. The home has abundant natural light and views from most windows. With the spacious sunken living room, you may decide to convert the sitting to a 4th bedroom.

The home is situated on approx. half an acre with provision for an additional horse paddock, should you need space for your equine friend.
