kitchen to accommodate families of all ages.

The study is a favourite feature, providing the perfect work-from-home space with natural light, and NBN FTTP for any professional reliant on high speed internet at home.

Features include:

- built-in robes and master walk-through robe
- bedrooms larger than standard
- solar panel system
- electric reverse-cycle ducted air conditioning and ceiling fans

Externally the property provides a lovingly landscaped quarter acre of land with big backyard, and space for veggies and chickens. Of course, there is the 6 m x 12 m approx. covered decking ideal for parties and summer barbecues, with views of the mountains above Healesville. Additionally, the 6 m x 6 m approx. remote-controlled double garage with built-in shelving completes the need for storage.

The home is in a fantastic, quiet court location, walking distance to shops, schools, cafes and parks. It is also located on the commuter's preferred west side of Healesville, being only 55 mins to Hoddle Street by easy access of Maroondah Highway.
